

WEEK THREE: FUTURE OF WASTE

Notes

	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
focus	Consider and Debate Students will consider the extent to which consumers, manufacturers, the solid waste industry, and the government are responsible for a sustainable waste system	final project
		Brainstorm and Plan Students will design their own "Ecoville" - a town that is designed with sustainable waste generation and management in mind	Design Students will design a visual representation of their town and its sustainable features	Design and Prepare Students will finalize their designs and prepare their talking points for presenting their town to the class	Present Students will present their towns Post-Test and Reflection
materials	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whiteboard or chart paper • Markers • Printed role cards (Consumer, Manufacturer, Waste Management, Government, Environmental Activist) • Sticky notes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Planning a Sustainable, Waste-Conscious Town worksheet • OPTIONAL reference materials [not included]: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ examples of visual representations of towns 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supplies to create town visuals, like • Large paper or posterboard • Grid paper • Rulers • Drawing supplies • Digital design tools 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supplies to create town visuals, like • Large paper or posterboard • Grid paper • Rulers • Drawing supplies • Digital design tools 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Finished town designs • Post-test